ABSTRACT

State that the roofs, outer walls &c of the Someshwara Swami and the Vigneshwara Swami temples of their village are in a dilapidated condition; That they are very old temples built by Dakana chari; That they represented the matter to the Amuktai Supdt (contd) when he had come there, who told them that if they were to deposit in the Treasury, half the cost of repairs, by raising contributions from the devotees, the Govt would pay the other half and get the said temples repaired; that the cost of repairs amounts to about 5 or 6 thousand rupees and they are too poor to pay half the said amount.

Pray that the repairs may be ordered to be executed by recovering from them only one-fourth the cost, the remaining three-fourths, being met by Govt.
